Untying the Text: A Post-Structuralist Reader

Edited by Robert J.C. Young

London and Boston, Routledge & Kegan Paul, 1981
ISBN 071000804X, 0710008058, 0415059119

Contents

Preface vii
Acknowledgments ix
Editor’s Note x
1 Post-Structuralism: An Introduction 1
Robert Young

Part One TEXT, DISCOURSE, IDEOLOGY 29

2 Theory of the Text 31
Roland Barthes

3 The Order of Discourse 48
Michel Foucault

4 On Literature as an Ideological Form 79
Etienne Balibar and Pierre Macherey
Part Two  STRUCTURALISMS WAKE

5 Interpretation and Descriptive Poetry:
A Reading of Wordsworth’s ‘Yew-Trees’
Michael Riffaterre

6 Textual Analysis of Poe’s ‘Valdemar’
Roland Barthes

7 The Critical Difference: Balzac’s
‘Sarrasine’ and Barthes’s ‘S/Z’
Barbara Johnson

Part Three  PSYCHOANALYSIS/LITERATURE

8 Trimethylamin: Notes on Freud’s Specimen Dream
Jeffrey Mehlman

9 Disremembering Dedalus: ‘A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man’
Maud Ellmann

10 An Art that will not Abandon the Self to Language:
Bloom, Tennyson, and the Blind World of the Wish
Ann Wordsworth

Part Four  RHETORIC AND DECONSTRUCTION

Barbara Johnson

12 The Stone and the Shell: The Problem of Poetic Form in Wordsworth’s Dream of the Arab
J.Hillis Miller

13 Action and Identity in Nietzsche
Paul de Man

14 Geraldine
Richard A. Rand

Index